Dear Friend:

Thank you for responding to my 2006 legislative survey. I appreciate you taking time to express your thoughts and concerns on a few issues before the Indiana General Assembly. Many of you included comments in addition to your answers to the questions, which I have read. The survey results are included for your review.

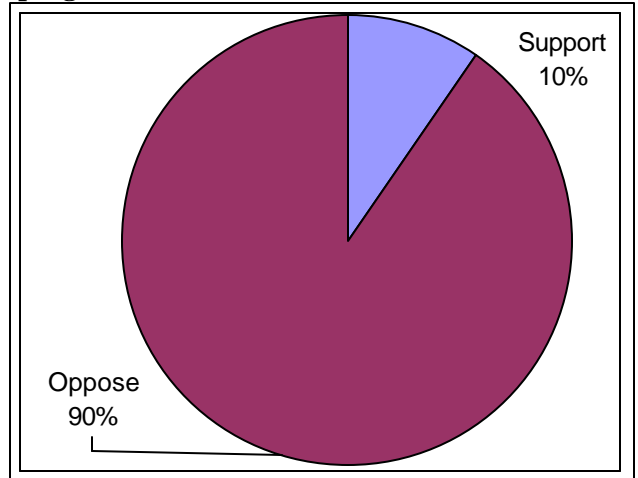

As your State Senator, your views and comments are important to me when making decisions on legislation that may have a direct impact on all of us. I do use the information obtained from the survey to guide me through this difficult session. Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have questions about the survey outcome or about any other issue. Thank you again for your participation in my 2006 legislative survey.

Sincerely,
